Guidelines for Mass:

- Maintain social distancing at all times (families may sit together)
- Do not congregate anywhere on church grounds
- Confessions will be heard in the cry room
- If someone is ill or vulnerable, they are excused from attending Mass
- If you have symptoms or have recently been in contact with someone who has tested positive, you must stay home.
- The faithful must be aware of the inherent risks involved, and it is incumbent upon them to make the decision to attend or not.

Please keep in your prayers the Priests from the Ridgefield Priory, many of whom celebrate the Anniversary of their Ordination to the Sacred Priesthood around this time.

INSTRUCTION ON A GOOD INTENTION

Master, we have labored all the night, and have taken nothing, but at thy word I will let down the net. (Luke V. 5.)

There are many people who by a special, but loving decree of God, seem to be born only for a miserable life, and who, with all this, can have no hope of a reward in the next world, because they, do not avail themselves (by a good intention) of the miseries which God gives them as a ladder to heaven.

In what does a good intention consist?

In performing all our works, even the smallest, and in offering all our thoughts and words in the name of God, that is, for His honor and in accordance with His most holy will; that we receive all sufferings and afflictions cheerfully from His hand, and offer them in union with the passion of Jesus.

How should we make a good intention?

In the morning we should offer to the Lord all our thoughts, words, and deeds, all our crosses and afflictions, and all our steps during the day:

- as a sacrifice of homage, to pay to Him the service, honor and adoration due Him;
- a sacrifice of thanksgiving for graces received;
- a sacrifice of propitiation to render some satisfaction to divine justice for our own sins and the sins of others;
- a sacrifice of impetration to obtain, through the merits of Christ, new graces and gifts for ourselves and others.

We must not forget, however, in making a good intention, to unite all our works with the merits of Jesus, by which alone they acquire worth and merit before God, and we must guard against impatience or sinful deeds by which we lose the merit of the good intention made in the morning, for a good intention cannot exist with sin. It is also very useful to place all our actions into the wounds of Jesus, offering them to Him by the hands of His Blessed Mother, and it is advisable frequently to renew our good intention during the day, by making use of these or similar words: "For the love of Thee, O Lord! For Thy sake! All in honor of God! With the intention I made this morning!" Endeavor to instruct the ignorant, how to make a good intention, and thus share in their good works.
